

Sponsorship Proposal Best of the Big Screen Monthly Series

About the Cinema Arts Centre

The Cinema Arts Centre (CAC) is Long Island's premiere independent community cinema and a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization with a national reputation for being leaders in independent film exhibition and cultural programming. Founded in 1973, CAC has about 10,000 loyal and engaged members and attracts about 125,000 attendees annually. CAC has over 22,000 social media followers and over 25,000 opt-in email subscribers.

About Best of the Big Screen

Film historian, lecturer, and curator Phillip Harwood hosts this monthly series, bringing classic films back to the big screen where they are meant to be seen. Upcoming films include the 70th anniversary celebration and new digital restoration of SINGIN' IN THE RAIN; a new digital restoration of WHITE CHRISTMAS; a 90th Anniversary presentation of KING KONG; ON THE WATERFRONT; ANNIE HALL; DOCTOR ZHIVAGO; and more!
